

Lawayne Perkins

KNOWLEDGE OR NONSENSE

Lawayne Perkins has an extensive history in Patient Centered Healthcare, currently serving as Director of Operations with CS Assist, INC. Perkins embodies a leadership model that is process driven and results- oriented, with a strong emphasis on collective efforts to achieve maximum productivity. He continuously demonstrates superior executive insight under a variety of circumstances; effectively controlling cost through economical utilization of personnel, materials, and equipment. Perkins has been extremely successful in leadership positions in both the private and public healthcare sectors. He served several years at the New York University College of Dentistry in various roles leading up to lead Clinical Manager. As Clinical Manager, Perkins was responsible for 160 pre-and post-dental students, their educational competencies, and carried responsibilities in patient charting and debt reconciliation.

Under his leadership as Director at a Level 1 Trauma Center in Valhalla, Perkins successfully managed an inventory valuing over 4 million dollars. During this time, the staff became 100% certified. He developed, introduced and implemented a 3-step quality assurance process that reduced compromised sets drastically, while simultaneously teaching an on-site weekend certification course for individuals wanting to work in the sterile processing field. The 3- step process resulted in Perkins co-authoring an article in Infection Control Magazine.

Lawayne has conducted process and quality assessments in hospitals of various sizes and in many states. He has also served on a number of professional committees throughout his time in healthcare including Infection Control, Operating Room Management, and the Greening Committee. As a committee member, he demonstrates the same accuracy, diligence and pride in performing assignments as he does in his occupation.

Lawayne Perkins is an avid mentor to many peers in the healthcare industry, is a cost saving advocate, and promotes the model of team building and service excellence. He is a true example of transformative leadership and a rarity amongst his peers.
