

Sharyn Combs

KNOWLEDGE OR NONSENSE

In 2012, Sharyn relocated to Texas as a Sales Manager overseeing the Sales Operations and Temporary Assignment Professionals contracts for SIPS. Responsible for business development, strategic marketing, organizational health and corporate culture, Sharyn created and developed the Progressive Leadership Tailored Mentoring and Coaching Program to serve small business owners and young professionals.

"Coaching via the Tailored Mentoring Program allows me to truly help the individual and the team reach their full capacity. And I love it!" Sharyn is an active member in her community and enjoys small time philanthropy. She presents low-cost quarterly leadership seminars to local small businesses and churches to help further strengthen the local economy. She enjoys making the connections between promising individuals and the people or programs that can help those individuals reach their next level

Sharyn Combs professionalism and leadership abilities are evident in all she does. She is a team player that works hard and brings out the best in those around her. Her love for life reflects her core belief that all things are possible, and life is for living. Sharyn started training professionally in 1997, investing herself in the success of others. In 2001, she became a Corporate Trainer for Brinker International. It was here she began to understand and hone the gift of vision casting. She realized that if the vision lacked buy in and understanding by the core team and stakeholders, then success would be temporary at best. Her passion, openness, and ability to reach all audiences is consistently demonstrated in both professional and personal life.

A native Oklahoman and an avid athlete, she graduated from Edison Senior High School where she lettered in Basketball prior to joining the Navy. During her enlistment in the US Navy, Sharyn received the Meritorious Advancement Honor for her integrity and leadership. She holds a Leadership degree from Oral Roberts University, with a strong focus on communication and social work. Sharyn has spent over 20 years working with young adults and at-risk youth on communication, critical thinking, and option discovery. She also is a certified Human Behavior Consultant, a nationwide speaker, and an author.
